

Business Visitation

Gary Shotton, Baron Berry & missionary, Becky Ruland with Anatoly Kissel, owner of Anton Rise. Most of Anatoly's experience as a business man is in interior reconstruction. Through these meetings, a good bridge was built to establish a working relationship between Anatoly and Becky's newly formed indigenous construction company, International Technologies.

Business Visitation

This brother and his wife have developed a factory that makes Potato Cakes, a popular Belarussian cuisine. Their whole family is involved in the process. They testify how God has helped them to prosper from the very start with items that were donated or that he purchased for very little. They were very happy to have American visitors to encourage them and pray for them.

In appreciation, they sent Becky, Gary, and Baron packed with frozen potato cakes to share with our friends.

CULTURE EXPERIENCES

Buildings and Eating Meals

Every visitor will experience the culture on a daily basis. The ideal opportunity is to stay in a Belarussian home rather than a hotel. Indulging in the finest of Belarussian foods will give each guest the opportunity to enjoy the local cuisine. There is rarely a negative comment.

Come and share your experience, skill, talents, gifts and abilities with the Belarussian business people. You'll bless them and will leave with more of a blessing than you ever expected. It WILL be fulfilling!!
